The Morris Cellar Pour:

2017 Galouchey . RIGHT BANK BLEND
‘Vin de Jardin’ En Magnum Bordeaux FR .25/glass

Domaine de Galouchey, operated in part by our good friend and venerable French sommelier Marco Pelletier, has the right to classify this wine every year as Bordeaux, but they choose to label it simply as table wine to invite curious eyes. This Vin de Jardin, or Wine of the Garden, is merlot dominant, but is a field blend of almost all the rest of Bordeaux’s legal varieties, both prestigious and lesser known. Marco likes to call it his little garden, and they farm it like one.

In the glass, this wine is what we wish all Bordeaux was like. It has perfectly ripe fruit, smoky earth, and an unmistakable lift and aromatic complexity from the inclusion of white grapes in the field blend.
