Coffee

while we typically like to stay as local as possible we were absolutely blown away and really wanted to share with you. manhattan coffee roasters are based out of rotterdam in the netherlands. these beans are sourced from an incredible farmer named diego bermudez in columbia. the varietal is the prized geisha and the processing is nothing less then mind blowing they call it 'advanced fermentation' because there are so many unique steps taken. but the most important thing is the taste! it tastes like a great cup of coffee but also like nothing you've experienced before. we think these are the most vinous coffees we've ever tasted and hope you are as wild about this liquid as we are.

Chemex ..... 20

Espresso

our espresso comes from linea, roasted right on Potrero Hill. tastes like being wrapped in a warm blanket.
